A SUPERB DAY OF DISCOVERY FOR ALL THE FAMILY

Explore and experience life in the Chilterns over the last 2000 years at our award-winning open air Museum, a great day out for all the family!

Over 30 superb rescued and reconstructed traditional Chilterns buildings, fascinating displays and demonstrations, 'hands-on' workshops and exciting period re-enactments. Set in 45 acres of idyllic park and woodland, it's a truly unique experience.

Travel through time, from an Iron Age House through to a 1947 Prefab via historic buildings, crafts and skills, all brought vividly to life for you.

"The Museum is so natural and unspoilt...with breathing, thinking and imagination space".
Museum Visitor 2009.

SO MUCH TO SEE AND DO

● Historic Buildings throughout the Ages

Explore a unique collection of authentic traditional Chilterns buildings - from an Iron Age House to a 1947 Prefab and including historic buildings such as our Witchert Cottage, Toll House, Forge, Chapel and Victorian Farmstead.

● Traditional Crafts and Skills

See and experience traditional Chilterns life, with specialist craft and skills demonstrations on selected days - and plenty of opportunities to try it yourself at our holiday 'hands-on' activities and workshops.

● Living History Re-enactments

From Roman times through to the Civil War, Victorian farming and into the 20th century, history is brought to life with superb living history re-enactments throughout the season.

● Victorian Farmstead

Step back into a typical Chilterns Victorian Farmstead with five farm buildings, our resident working horses Sovereign and Harvey, traditional farm animals and working agricultural equipment used in historic farming demonstrations.

● Adventure Playground and Woodland Walk

Children can play safely in our well-equipped adventure playground - and there is a delightful woodland walk route for all the family.

● Group Visits

Discounted pre-booked group visits, guided tours and craft demonstrations, children's parties and corporate hire.

● Activities

Family holiday activities, Arborfield Adventurer's Holiday Club for 5 - 12 year olds, Young Volunteers Club and craft courses for children and adults.

● Café and Museum Shop

Relax with light refreshments and lunches in our Wood End Café. Browse the Museum Shop with a wide selection of books, souvenirs and unique gifts for children and adults.

Plus: Victorian and 1940s dressing up clothes, toys and games, candle making at weekends and holidays, horse and carriage rides most Sundays.
