

Garston Forge

Read this passage and choose a word from the list to put in each space. Each word can only be used once. Then re-read the passage again to check that it makes sense.

Garston Forge was around 1860 at Garston near Watford. The first blacksmith in the new was George Freeman. The trade was carried out by members of the Martin family from the early until 1962.

The are made from bricks. The is covered in slate.

Blacksmiths made anything that could be made out of, including small nails and horseshoes 1860's forge built roof walls metal

