

Iron Age House

The Celts lived in houses like this 2000 years ago.

Around the house is a fence, that kept _____ like wolves away from the house and the Celt's animals.

The walls are made from wattle, which is sticks _____ in and out of upright posts. The wattle is then covered with a mixture of dung and straw called _____.

Tick here when you have looked at the walls.

The thatched roof is made from _____.

Tick here when you have looked at the roof.

All the materials used to build the house would have been found nearby. Stand outside the Iron Age House and look around. Where would they have found:

Wood? _____

Straw? _____

Draw part of the Iron Age House or an object inside the house below: