

How we used to celebrate Christmas

learn about past traditions

BOOK NOW
01494 875 542

Why are oranges associated with Christmas?

How did we celebrate Christmas in the past?
Do you know any traditional poetry?
Why are oranges associated with Christmas?

Children will:
Join in with Christmas poetry reading inside our decorated Victorian toll house. Create a Christmas pudding inside our 18th century cottage using traditional cooking methods, they will be able to stir the pudding and make a wish.

Then chose one of the following options:

Traditional Christmas Crafts: Create greenery salt dough and 1940/1970 style decorations to take back to school.

A large cardboard box for transport will be essential.

The objective of this theme day is for children to discover what Christmas was like in the 18th and 19th century.

For more information please contact a member of our Education Team:
education@coam.org.uk
01494 871 117

KS1 & KS2